

PENFIELD: A TRADITION OF SUSTAINABILITY

1990s

- Integrated pest management
- Reduced mowing
- Stormwater management leadership

1999

- Town ownership & conversion of street lights (savings in many thousands $)
- Open Space Inventory & Protection

1980s

- Energy Conservation & Cost Savings
- Energy Management System

2000s

- Public Education
- Stormwater management education

2007

Rain Garden

2008

- Reduced Town fleet
- 1st electronics recycling event
- Free mulch for residents
- Leaf management education
- Tree giveaway
- No idling policy

2009

- NYSERDA Stimulus projects
- Internal sustainability audit
- Planning Board goes digital

2010

- Drop-off services include recycling
- Harris Whalen Lodge update
- Home energy workshops
 - Recycling in parks
 - Cold in-place paving
- Energy & Environment Advisory Committee
- Public works 4 day work week

Computerized salt control = save $, protects land

2011

- Manhole sealing saves $16 K yearly
- Bay Trail recycling education
- PenRec stops Styrofoam

2012

More digital business practices: Overall reduced paper use

- 1st public EV charging station in county
 - Electric car show events
- 1st solar sewer pump station in county
- Energy Management System expands
- Resident recycling expands to include identity protection

2013-14

- 2nd EV charging station
- More recycling, less landfill
- GM Bat houses
- Solar PV Harris Whalen Lodge

